Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Thursday 16 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
West seeing rain on Friday, east mainly dry.

This Evening and Tonight:
A mainly dry evening in the east, while rain, occasionally heavy, over the west coast spreads into the west mainland this evening. Patchy rain will extend to the east overnight.

Friday:
Western Scotland cloudy with rain at times, some persistent rain across Argyll. East often dry with just the odd shower, some brightness possible in the northeast.

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Rather cloudy with some rain or showers on Saturday. Sunny intervals and scattered showers on Sunday then mainly dry with some sunshine on Monday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.